FIRST CLASS LOOK ON ECONOMY BUDGET

☑ It's easy to look good when you have funds? How tough is that when you don't?

☑ You have to become innovative, tenacious and determined to make the best of what you've got.

☑ Support your expertise with a memorable visual brand. If you cannot be forgotten, you'll be in demand. When you're in demand, you'll have the funds. It's just a matter of time.

A DIY manicure and a hand cream will ensure you stand for a confident yet pleasant handshake. Boys, it's OK to buff up those rugged paws.

Your hair and your hands are the crown jewels in the kingdom of first class dressing. Whatever your financial position, you need to take a good care of them.

Don't be afraid to spend a little more on a good cut. Your hairstyle is a window to your character.

Love them or hate them, sales might be the way to go when you are on a budget. This kind of shopping though requires more perseverance, clear focus and sharp mind.

Concentrate on the things you need, not on the discounts you want.

A wardrobe on a budget is about accessories. Things like jackets, pants or skirts are your big ticket items. Shirts, ties or jewelry are your change-the-look dollar savers.

Shopping in your own closet is the best trick known to the first class dressers on a budget.

Try on and assess every garment you own. Ask yourself: How can I make it look better? Does a sleeve need to be shortened? Hem taken up? Shape altered? Fluff removed? Dry cleaners visited? Colour changed? Buttons swapped? Belt updated? Polish given? Shoulder pads fixed?

Look after your skin. Right products are a must for a cashmere soft complexion. Can it come on a budget? Buy online at strawberrynet & skincarestore
